For class descriptions and a list of prerequisites, see the University Bulletin or Class Search on MyCoyote.

NOTE:

1. Prerequisites are strictly enforced: You cannot enroll in a class unless you have taken its prerequisites.
2. A general rule of thumb for lower division requirements is to select at least one business core each quarter, then fill remaining slots with GE.
3. Once you reach junior standing, take FIN 313 and FIN 314 as soon as you can, followed by courses in the concentration.
4. Once you reach junior standing, the general rule of thumb for each quarter is to select concentration courses first, then the business core courses, and then fill in open slots with GE.
